Red Aprons

If you have a question or need assistance, people wearing red aprons are here to assist you in any way that they can.

Photos

Photographs will be taken for MCEC purposes. Please speak with the photographer, Dan Driedger, or someone with a red apron if you have a concern.

Name Tags

Please help us recycle the name tag holders at the end of the Annual Church Gathering. Remove white name tag from holder, carefully wrap the string, and tuck the string inside the holder. Leave name tag holder in box by the doors as you leave.

Information Poly Envelope

Please help us recycle the poly envelopes at the end of the Annual Church Gathering by removing the contents from the envelope and leaving the empty envelope in box by the doors as you leave.

Medical Assistance

If you require medical assistance, contact someone wearing a red apron who will direct you to our nurse, Gladys Bender. The first aid room is located in the Student Services Room as indicated on the floor plan on page 21.

Prayer Room

Mennonite Spiritual Directors of Eastern Canada are once again providing prayer support. We are grateful. The prayer room is open to everyone and is located in the Student Services Room as indicated on the floor plan on page 21.

Ministry Displays & Bookstore

Visit the display area and meet the various representatives from MCEC Partners in Ministry.

Evaluation

Watch for an evaluation form to arrive in your inbox within the next week. We sure would appreciate it if you would take a few moments to complete it. Thanks.

MCEC in Ministry Congregational Mailing

Please ensure that your congregation's mailing has been picked up. Pick-up is located at the registration table.

How We Communicate — Sharing Our Wisdom

- » Please treat each other with respect in Christian love.
- » Identify yourself and your congregation/organization before making your remarks.
- » Direct your remarks to the moderator and speak for yourself only, unless specifically commissioned to speak for a group. If so, name the group.
- » Clarify whether you support the motion on the floor or have a different view.
- » Keep your remarks brief to allow others time to speak.
- » Allow everyone who wants to speak an opportunity to do so before speaking a second time to the same motion.
- » Floor privileges are extended to all attendees.
- » Voting privileges are reserved for delegates.

Parliamentarian

Sam Steiner is our parliamentarian and will advise us on procedural process when necessary.

Welcome of New Volunteers

Chris Brnjas
Congregational Ministries Council

Chris is a pastoral intern and interim youth pastor at The Gathering Church in Kitchener. He would like to see MCEC remain faithful to God's movement and calling for congregations though being an equipping and enabling organization with flexible and innovative practices.

Joyce Collard
Administrative & Financial Services Council

Joyce attends Erb Street Mennonite Church in Kitchener and is a retired accountant. She currently operates a part-time bookkeeping practice and has served in various positions within her home congregation. She has an interest in administration and accounting of Not For Profit Organizations and looks to be a part of developing policies that will enable MCEC to operate in a fair and equitable manner to all involved.

Paul Fieguth
Conrad Grebel University College Board

Paul attends Waterloo North Mennonite Church and is a Professor and Department Chair in Systems Design Engineering at the University of Waterloo. He would like to see MCEC thrive and believes that what MCEC churches will look like a generation or two from now depends an awful lot on the education, values, outlook, and involvement of today's students. As a CGUC board member representing MCEC, he believes this is an important opportunity to best understand what young people need, what they are looking for, and how to effectively create connections.

Dennis Gingrich
Rockway Mennonite Collegiate Board

Dennis is a member at Breslau Mennonite Church and has served previously with MCEC as Chair of the Congregational Ministries Council.

Welcome of New Volunteers

Brandon Leis
Ontario Mennonite Music Camp

Brandon is an educator, performer, church music director, and a community musician. He enjoys having fun while making music and sees music as a positive agent of community development and societal change. He desires to encourage active participation by all members of MCEC based on the belief that we all have gifts to share that will enrich the lives of others and glorify God.

Shari Nash
Administrative & Financial Services Council

Shari, a member of Shantz Mennonite Church, is currently an Administrator at Western University. She looks forward to expanding the knowledge of the MCEC story and how it spreads the good news by communicating through an Anabaptist lens.

Jim Tiessen
Conrad Grebel University College Board

Jim is a member of Hamilton Mennonite Church and is a Senior Corporate Development Advisor of an oil company. He is involved at a congregational level in a number of areas and looks forward to connect with the people MCEC serves and to ensure they understand what MCEC has to offer. He wants to be a part of looking for ways to help MCEC and CGUC thrive in the coming years.

New Congregation

Chin Christian Church

Pastors: Joseph Raltong and Jehu Lian

Pastors Joseph Raltong, Jehu Lian, and David Martin celebrate as the Chin Christian Church in Kitchener acquire their own worship space this past November.

Chin Christian Church was welcomed into MCEC as an emerging congregation in 2009. They are a congregation of approximately 130 worshippers.

Through a close friendship with First Hmong Mennonite Church, who warmly welcomed the Chin to share worship facilities, Chin Christian Church learned more about Christianity from an Anabaptist perspective. They have developed many meaningful relationships with MCEC congregations, organizations, and people.

They seek full membership within the MCEC community of congregations at this year's Annual Church Gathering.

Litany of Response for Welcoming New Congregations

Leader: These persons now presented to you have witnessed to their faith in Jesus Christ and offer themselves as companions in our obedience to Christ. It is our privilege and joy to welcome them into our family of faith.

People: We freely receive you, even as Christ has received us.
We open ourselves to fellowship with you in worship, study, service, and discipline.
We pledge our willingness to give and receive counsel and to offer and accept forgiveness in the redeemed community.
We joyfully accept you as partners, both in the care of our spiritual family, and in our mission to the world.

Pastors New to MCEC

Pastors new or returning to MCEC were asked to reflect on ministry based on this quote from Frederick Buechner. These are their responses.

“The place God calls you to is the place where your deep gladness and the world’s deep hunger meet.”

From Frederick Buechner’s book Wishful Thinking: A Theological ABC (New York: Harper and Row, 1974, page 95)

Gordon Allaby
Waterloo North Mennonite Church

I have pondered Buechner's quote many times, especially during periods of transition. I even used it in the first Ministerial Leadership Information form I filled out. I am usually slow to realize and grasp God's gracious providence in my life. Still, I rely on God's guidance and presence during the uncertainty of change, albeit reluctantly, with foot dragging at first. So far, God has known better than me, and I appreciate that God tolerates my doubts and likely smiles when I catch on.

Rachel Brnjas
The Gathering Church

It is a true honour and joy to walk alongside children in my ministry; to watch them grow and ask thoughtful questions, to deepen their compassion and understanding of others, and to know they are loved, cherished, and valued. I feel privileged to join in with the work God is already doing in the hearts and lives of children and families in our faith community and neighbourhood.

Carmen Brubacher
Ottawa Mennonite Church

In taking on this role as Supply Minister at Ottawa Mennonite Church I feel like I have found myself in a new way. It is such a gift to be able to hear people's stories, to have time to explore scripture, and to think deeply about being God's people with the ordinary and extraordinary community at OMC. It simply feels right.

Pastors New to MCEC

Sara Erb
First Mennonite Church

I've always liked the Book of Jonah, probably because I have always understood his fear. Most of my journey with call has been to actively run away from it. I never realized that I could find so much joy in saying yes to God and engaging the world as a pastor.

Sara Freeman
Elmira Mennonite Church

As a pastor, I journey alongside congregants providing a conversation partner for the individual lives of people and for the life of the church. It is in the midst of these stories, questions, silences, tears, and laughter that we explore the world's deep hunger and meet God.

Gloria (Lili) Hurtarte
Toronto Mennonite New Life Church

Ser pastora Espiritual es el llamada de Dios, a llevar Su grandioso amor a todos los hambrientos de su misericordia, a todos los de duro corazon en donde quiera que esten. Es el don espiritual dado por El Senor para entregarse plenamente a su obra, la cual es construir el reino de Dios.

To be a spiritual pastor is a calling from God. It is to bring compassion and understanding to all those with hardened or broken hearts wherever they may be. It is a message from God to give ourselves entirely to God's work, to the construction of His Kingdom.

Josh Martin
Community Mennonite Fellowship

I will be forever grateful for the opportunity to have ministered within my home church. I truly believe that God pushed me through the doorway to the next step of my entire life. It has been a blessing to watch these young, energetic youth grow in their personal understanding of Christ and his overwhelming love.

Pastors New to MCEC

Judith McCartney
Church Without Walls

My greatest delight as a minister is the role of pastoral care and leadership development. It gives me incredible joy being present during times of my congregants' struggles and celebrations. My objective is to establish believers in their faith and to equip and resource them to be leaders in the church, their schools, the marketplace, and beyond. That clearly is my call and it gives me deep gladness.

Colin McCartney
Leadership for Under Resourced Neighbours

To me being a pastor is to embrace young adults living in high-risk urban centres and to encourage and empower them to be all that God has created them to be. My greatest joy is seeing Jesus work through them to impact their world, their way, in accordance to their unique calling, gifts, and talents.

Laura Mullet Koop
Quest Christian Community

My work as spiritual director is to help us collectively tune our attention to God's transforming beauty, love, and creativity as it is revealed among the joys and struggles of our community.

Sean Sero
Poole Mennonite Church

Sean Sero began as the youth pastor at Poole Mennonite Church on June 1, 2014. He has experience in church planting and has a Bachelor of Religious Studies from Heritage College in Cambridge.

Pastors New to MCEC

Tim Snyder
Living Water Community Christian Fellowship

From 2003 - 2014, Tim ministered with Urban Promise Toronto, a Torchbearers school in Germany, and in Bosnia with Crossworld. Tim and his family then returned to Canada and Tim accepted the call to the Youth Pastor role at Living Water Christian Community Fellowship in December 2014.

Craig Stephens
The Gathering Church

I am aware that youth ministry brings both a special kind of hunger and gladness. It is through witnessing and experiencing friendships, personal growth, and divine grace that the greatest gladness comes. It is wonderful when young people have the blessing of discovering these hungers at an early age.

Louise Wideman
Vineland United Mennonite Church

As a pastor, I experience deep gladness

- » when we discover new ways that our stories intersect with God's story;
- » when we gather inter-generationally for worship, work, and play;
- » when love and laughter, healing and hope, and generosity and grace are predominant threads in the fabric of congregational life.

Project Descriptions

Making Disciples

ReLearning Community: we are in conversation with an Anglican/Baptist Union church in the UK which is prepared to journey alongside MCEC leaders as we learn to make disciples in our context

Urban Young Adult Leadership Initiatives: equip and support young adult leaders to share their gifts with their neighbours and church communities

Faith Formation Support for new Canadians: explore new models of faith formation with congregations as they invite children, youth, and young adults to faith in a time of significant transition

Anabaptist resource persons: assist in providing resource persons who will help MCEC congregations explore Anabaptist history and theology and challenge us to greater faithfulness in extending the peace of Jesus Christ

Faith formation funding for Rockway and UMEI: MCEC will provide one-time financial support that is matched by school donors in order to provide greater accessibility for MCEC students to receive a faith-based high school education

Legacy Initiatives Fund

Growing Congregations

theExchange: a dynamic, interactive web space to facilitate the sharing of ideas and resources among MCEC congregations

Go & Grow! seed money for new initiatives disbursed to MCEC congregations in order to facilitate healthy congregational life through the discovery and release of God given gifts

Access for distant congregations: ensure that remote congregations have technology enabling them to access materials on-line as well as to participate in streamed events.

Missional consultant: support the Executive Council and staff in helping our congregations adapt and become an increasing missional presence in the changing social context in Eastern Canada

Expanded conflict resolution resources: assist congregations in acquiring the supports necessary when navigating a special challenge or crisis

Forming Leaders

Lebold Endowment: top up this shared MCEC/ Conrad Grebel endowment for leadership training to its $1 million goal and use proceeds to develop and support new training initiatives for lay and pastoral leaders

Urban Anabaptist Exchanges: provide opportunities for young adult leaders to experience a variety of models of urban ministry and diverse expressions of church so that they are equipped and inspired to become missional leaders in their home contexts

ESL Leadership Training: where possible, expand the current teaching and training program offered in Spanish to other languages in MCEC

Missional Leadership project: this pilot project brings together a group of MCEC ministers to explore how we might develop and train missional pastoral leaders for the church

Missional Infrastructure

Website/communications: develop MCEC's capacity to communicate with everyone wanting to hear the stories. This will include social media and produced videos.

Live streaming of events: take advantage of new technologies that will make it easier for distant congregations to participate in MCEC learning opportunities and meetings
